

Holiday Volunteering

At this time of year it's important to remember those who are in need. Here are some great ways to give back to your community

Sponsor a Family in Need
Family-To-Family.org

Everyone deserves a family holiday meal. Family-to-Family.org Helps feed a family that doesn't have the means to do so this holiday.

Helping the Homeless
NationalHomeless.org

The National Coalition for the homeless offers a lot of ways to help the homeless in your community including serving food, building homes or skills training.

Food for a Lonely Person
Meals-on-Wheels.com

Volunteering with Meals On Wheels is a great way to help out people who may not see their family for the holidays.

Toys for Children
ToysForTots.org

Many local businesses start accepting toy donations during the holiday season for Toys for Tots. You can buy a few presents for economically disadvantaged families.

Volunteer at Animal Shelters
SPCA.org

Animal shelters are always looking for volunteers and donations. Go play with needy cats and dogs and maybe even add one to your family!

Visit a Senior Citizen
VolunteerMatch.org

Plan a visit to a local retirement community and bring a little holiday cheer to senior citizens who aren't able to go out and enjoy other local events.
