The City of Florence is located in Williamson County, directly north of Austin, with a population of just over 1,100 people.

The Vineyard at Florence is one of the best-kept secrets in the Texas Hill Country. This sprawling escape is spread across 600 picturesque acres. This gem of an estate appears as if it originated in Florence, Italy, not central Texas.

Guests enjoy luxurious rooms and great views of the Texas countryside. Visitors that elect to forego the overnight stay can partake in delectable dishes in the on-site restaurant, Farmers Commons. They can also indulge in The Vineyard at Florence's award-winning wines.

Farmers Commons is one of the finest dining experiences available in Florence, as there are several other great eateries located in the small city.

Residents or tourists interested in down-home cooking will enjoy a visit to D. Boone's Country Store & Café, where authentic southern meals are served up in foam trays with plastic utensils. Patrons shouldn't let the humble packaging fool them, as these dishes are both satiating and flavorful.

Other dining options include Mano's Mexican Food, La Fuente Restaurant, and Bissinger's Chocolate Experience & Café.

Florence is also home to several antique shops and other local businesses. Guests interested in browsing for a few hours can explore and shop to their heart's content.
