An upscale neighborhood in Houston, River Oaks is especially known for its grand estates and hundred-year-old oak trees. Only a short drive from downtown, visitors find River Oaks for its shopping and dining close to home at the River Oaks Shopping Center.

Perhaps the best way to view the beauty of the neighborhood as a visitor is by visiting one of the Museum of Fine Arts Houston's satellite campuses in the area. The Bayou Bend Collection and Gardens is located on a historic, 14-acre estate and houses a rich collection of silver, ceramics and paintings. Visitors and residents alike enjoy the peace and quiet of nature while touring the gardens or during family-friendly events.

The River Oaks Country Club was founded in 1923 and is ranked No. 56 of the Top 100 Golf and Country Clubs globally by Platinum Clubs of the World. Adjacent to River Oaks Country Club and bordered by Buffalo Bayou is Memorial Park Golf Course, which has hosted the PGA's Houston Open.
